Guru Kashi Vishweshwar : It is said that Guru Nanak was so troubled by the sounds of the divine Bhagat Geet-e-Gurdas Ki - This was the first Godly poem recited in Gurbani. It is regarded as Guru Nanak's best known poem. The entire poem is a glorification of Lord Krishna. It is a Sanskrit (Maithili) poem. Guru Nanak Jee Dukhiya Ke Naam: The meaning of this poem is clearly understood. It also states the name of the Lord Krishna. Here you can find Guru Nanak's best known poem for complete knowledge. It is said that Guru Nanak was so troubled by the sounds of the divine. His tent was located at the banks of the Ganga. Sitting in his tent, listening to the sounds of the divine while minding his prayers, he was suddenly very glad hearing the divine name, just as it was sung as Bhagat Geet-e-Gurdas Ki. The chants of the divine name can be heard in the background. Guru Nanak humbly and respectfully prayed to the divine in this blissful state of mind, and thus he drew his devotion and affiliation to the divine. His first hymn was composed from that blissful state of mind. "It is said that Guru Nanak was so troubled by the sounds of the divine. His tent was located at the banks of the Ganga.
